WILSON AND MARSHALL NAMED; ALL AMERICA PLATFORM ADOPTED

NOMINATIONS RUSHED AT NIGHT SESSION WITH BIG DEMONSTRATIONS

PLATFORM CALLS FOR PRE-
PAREDNESS AND SUFFRAGE

CONDEMNATION FOR THOSE WHO SEEK TO ADVANCE
FOREIGN INTERESTS

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, June 16.—President Wilson received the following telegram from Vice President Marshall: "In the fight which you are to win, Always yours to command."

Coliseum, St. Louis, June 16.—Chairman James called the Democratic National Convention to order at 11:06 o'clock for the purpose of adopting the platform.

Senator Reed was called on for a speech. He read a statement which he attributed to Justice Hughes in 1912, which declared against supreme court justices entering politics.

Senator Stone presented the report of the resolutions committee.

When Senator Stone moved the adoption of the platform, Governor Ferguson of Texas presented a minority report, objecting to the suffrage plank, and proposed a substitute plank with no mention of women, saying: "We reaffirm the provision of the federal constitution which vests in the several states of the Union the right to prescribe the qualifications of their electors."

Each side was granted thirty minutes for debate.

THREE MISMATED COUPLE SEEK SEPARATION

Three divorce suits were filed in district court today. In each case the petition charges desertion. Two were brought by men and one by a woman. Chas. Graft who was married on May 15, 1915, was deserted in June. The couple were married in Missouri, the home of the bride. She refused to stay in Oklahoma and hiked back to the home folks.

Charles Elliott charges in his petition that Amanda, his wife, quit him cold in 1911 after they had lived together for 50 years. The couple have two children, both sons, 18 and 21 years of age.

Eliza McMillan says John McMillan has divorced on the grounds that he is now an inmate of the Arkansas state prison, where he was sent last year for forgery.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION ADJOURNS FOR TERM TEUTONIC DRIVE

The board of equalization has adjourned. The assessment as made by Knob Creek, county assessor, stands as returned, with the exception of one change made by the board, in which a corporation's assessment was changed, making it individual, the corporation having dissolved since last year.

There is an increase of a quarter of a million dollars in real estate as compared with 1915. This was caused by the sale of hitherto non-taxable school land. The personal property assessment is practically the same as last year.

Each side was granted thirty minutes for debate.

PLAGG-HARRIS WEDDING PRETTY HOME AFFAIR

A pretty home wedding took place June 15th at nine a. m. at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Plagg with their daughter, Gladys Plagg and Mr. Willard G. Harris were united in marriage by Dr. S. L. Teague. The bridal couple entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Agnes Gaffney. The bride was charming in her white wedding dress and carrying a shower of bride's roses. Ferns and pink blossoms formed the background of the ceremony to order. The crowd yelled beautiful white arch under which the ceremony was performed. A two-course breakfast was served by Mrs. Plagg, Mrs. E. Brown and Mrs. W. H. Chandler, to about fifty guests, the following from out of town: Mrs. B. T. Cooke and son Howell of Tulsa City, Miss Edith Baffler of Arkansas police fairly battled with besieging throng.

After Mr. Bryan finished speaking Judge Westcott placed President Wilson in nomination. The Wilson demonstration lasted 45 minutes. Judge Westcott, of New Jersey, placed Wilson in nomination and Senator Kern, of Indiana, placed Marshall's name before the convention. All the vice presidential booms wailed early in the day. W. H. Bryan was given an oration and made a stirring address. It was 9:15 bride's roses. Ferns and pink blossoms formed the background of the ceremony to order. The crowd yelled beautiful white arch under which the ceremony was performed. A two-course breakfast was served by Mrs. Plagg, Mrs. E. Brown and Mrs. W. H. Chandler, to about fifty guests, the following from out of town: Mrs. B. T. Cooke and son Howell of Tulsa City, Miss Edith Baffler of Arkansas police fairly battled with besieging throng.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris have the same teen and good wishes of many friends. Mr. Harris is from Detroit, Mich., but recently accepted a position in Oklahoma City where he has prepared a home for his bride. They will be at home in Oklahoma City after June twenty-fifth.

BETTING ODDS IN N.Y.

FAVOR HUGHES

New York, June 16.—The biggest candidate to succeed himself to the presidency on record is looked for by the scholars, the statesmen, the financiers, the emancipator, the pacifier, the moral leader of democracy—Woodrow Wilson.

"Not I, but civilization itself nominates to succeed himself to the presidency of the United States—the 'bookies' this year once the candidates get their stamping under way.

Chester Thompson, a curmudgeon, has $60,000 to wager against $50,000 that Hughes will be elected, with no takers in sight.

Petrograd, June 16.—After a year and a half of prohibition Russia may well be likely successfully abolish the liquor traffic. The sale of intoxicants since Emperor Nicholas put the regulation to the public forbidding the traffic at the rate of about a billion rubles (approximately yearly to approximately 100,000,000 rubles) of that sum this time per cent largely consists of the sale of liquors for medical purposes although it is included also a limited traffic in wines for which there is a restricted permission in certain parts of the empire.

GRAND CONCLAVE K. OF T. OPENS AT LOS ANGELES

KNIGHTS FROM ALL PARTS OF AMERICA GATHER FOR 33RD ENCAMPMENT

(By Associated Press.)

Los Angeles, Cal., June 16.—Despite the practical every confraternity in the United States were here today to attend the thirty-third annual encampment and grand encampment of the Knights Templar of America, which opens tomorrow night and continues until Saturday. Delegates from Alaska, Honolulu and the Philippines, representatives of the grand priories of Canada and Ireland and a Masonic delegation from Mexico were expected.

The continental conference of the order will be celebrated at this year's meeting.

All Boley Voda Gone.

One of the most noticeable results of the almost complete suppression of vodka nationally is the disappearance from the streets and other places of intemperate persons. They have been unable to be more or less a pest. People observed with a sense of unusual surprise doubt if the baneful results of the vodka in fact regular.

The 33rd annual encampment of the grand conclave will be held in the Hotel St. Francis beginning next Tuesday.

As electric reports, "The Knights of the Temple," a total and absolute paradise, a solid social institution and an athletic carnival will be features of the entertainment program. In addition there will be held the international knightly tournaments and contests of various activities on the following days and often for the preceding days because of the great and unusual interest the games will be held in a large amphitheater near the business section of town, which was selected for the convenience. The parades also will pass through the city streets around which have been constructed barriers for the spectators. Four bands—each with three brass bands—will play the popular marches.

STOLEN ANIMALS ARE RECOVERED BY SHERIFF

J. B. Marion, farmer, living near Marion, lost a mare and a mule on May 31. He thought at that time that the animals had strayed and did not report his loss to the sheriff's office until June 5th.

Sheriff Ellwood got busy and flooded the south country with cards describing the stolen animals. Yesterday morning he received a wire from Pocahontas, a small town near Marion, that the animals had been located. Theodore Loft, negro, who formerly lived at Langston, and who was raised in Logan county as another name, was arrested charged with the murder of Edgar Watts, a school boy in the mountains of Marion county, February 10th last.

Young Watts formerly lived in Guthrie. His father, Jessie Watts, was connected with the state school board department. He was shot and killed following a row with this school teacher. McDermott, aware that young Watts tried to kill him, and he shot him in self-defense.

ROOSEVELT BRIDGE, NORTH OF TOWN, OUT OF REPAIR

In account of excessive rainfall, especially to the Gibson bridge, north of the city, has been washed out and the bridge has been temporarily closed by the county commissioners. A gang of men are at work putting the bridge in repair. Persons going north should take the road west 2 miles then 1 mile north to the main Crescent road.
